

was calculated to amount to between ten and twelve hundred warriors, headed by Winnemac, a Kickapoo Chief,---and that they lost about four hundred in killed and wounded. Our loss amounted to forty-one killed, and one hundred forty-seven wounded. The names of those of the 4th regt. are given in the latter part of this Journal.

A Potawatimie Chief was found severely wounded on the field, sometime after the action. He was brought before the General, and expressed the greatest sorrow at what had happened---and accused the Prophet of deceiving them. His wounds were dressed by the surgeon, and the best care taken of him while we remained with us on the ground. The Gen. left with him a speech to be delivered to the Indians, if they should return to the battle ground.

Nov. 8.--A small detachment of mounted men were ordered to advance to the Prophet's town, and see what had become of the Indians. They entered the town and found an aged squaw only, who informed them that the Indians had left it in great haste, immediately after the action, and had crossed the Wabash.--- It was a handsome little Indian village of be-
